

Mikulov

The picturesque town among vineyards offering the best to satisfy all your senses.

About

Mikulov, known as the "town of sights," boasts a rich tapestry of attractions. Explore the Gothic-Renaissance church of St. Wenceslas, the historic Jewish Quarter, and the Baroque chateau featuring the Czech Republic's largest wine-making exhibition.

Wander through the picturesque square with its old Renaissance houses. Don't miss the Dietrichstein Tomb, the Holy Trinity Column, and the Jewish cemetery with over 4,000 tombstones - one of the Czech Republic's largest. Be sure to ascend the Holy Hill, a nature preserve and renowned pilgrimage site offering breathtaking views from atop St. Sebastian's Church.

With its blend of history, nature, and delicious wine, Mikulov is the perfect destination for a memorable getaway, whether for a short excursion or a leisurely holiday. And get into the mood before the journey to Mikulov by watching this video \(1\)

Useful information

Web: www.mikulov.cz

Mikulov offers plenty of sites worth spending more than one day:

Chateau Mikulov – audio guide offered, payment cash or by card

Holy Hill – easy ascent to the hill following the Way of the Cross takes approximately 30 minutes and will offer you stunning views over the city

The Synagogue – tours not guided, multilingual written materials are available, payment only by cash

Dietrichstein Tomb – tours not guided, multilingual written materials are available, payment only by cash

Na Tuoldu Cave – warm clothes recommended (average temperature inside is 7-9 °C), payment cash or by card

Tourist information centre – open every day 9.00-18.00, guided city tours in foreign languages are provided only for groups upon request, reservation ahead is needed, for more information contact the centre

How to get there

By train or bus, approximate travelling time: 75 minutes one way.

By direct bus: From Brno, ÚAN Zvonařka to Mikulov, u parku

By train: From Brno Hl. nádraží to Mikulov na Moravě and you need to transfer in Břeclav

By car

Localization in the map

Map

Where to go for lunch

Restaurant Víno Šílová, Bar & Restaurant O'Hara, Pedro's Streetfood

Where to go for coffee or brunch

MOJI café, 48'16' cafe bar

Where to go for wine

Korek Mikulov, Volařík, Víno Šílová